This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Price, One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color, which will neither rub nor wash off.

I. C. PUGH, Postmaster.

EX-GOVERNOR JEWELL ABROAD.

Miss Kate Stanton met the jolly Governor at Paris, and was evidently greatly charmed by him, for she says: "It was my pleasure to meet the genial ex-Governor of Connecticut here, yesterday. He had lately arrived from S. Petersburg. I know he is going home as Postmaster General, but I do not know his relative political status, or strength, or character, and I do not wish to; for you know I hate all politicians, as such, 'in wholesale,' but one thing I do know and that is America has but few as fine representatives abroad as Governor Jewell. He is a host in himself for good cheer; wholesome to look upon; courteous to the degree of French politeness, even; unassuming, with a keen, intelligent eye for all that's passing; is 'well up,' as the English say, in art culture, knows the fine points of a good painting, etc., and, withal, is one of the most refinedly delicate gentlemen I have ever met. There's enough of 'rotundity and solidity about him to comprehend the best elements of the Englishman, united to the suavity of the Frenchman and his keen intelligence, and the energy of Brother Jonathan's sons. I assure you he is a 'marked figure' in Paris, and everybody seems to like him as well as I do. What a contrast is he to the stiff, 'pokerish,' sleepy-headed Americans I often meet—New York merchants, perhaps, snobs of the worst sort, trying to ape the politeness of the French (for which, all thanks); but making a sorry failure.—Well, ex Minister Jewell is a jewel indeed in many respects, and I think it will hereafter be a double happiness to read one's letters with the consciousness that he's Postmaster-General. I hope he will hold the office as long as he lives, through, say twenty more presidential terms—for I am sure he'll prove worthy of it."

A DARKEY'S OPINION OF THE SCANDAL.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

"You see, it's jis like a game o' draw. Beecher it was his blind; everybody took a hand. Miss Woodhull she makes de fuss play; den dis man Bacon he comes in. When Bacon comes in, Mass' Tilton follow, 'cos he had good han'. Mass' Moulton follered in, 'cos he thought Tilton was a-goin' to be robbed—dropped in kinder quiet like. Then de small fry, dem fellers with deuces an' trays, they came in, 'cos it looked like a good pot. Mass' Beecher pick up his hand an' he found a fow (four) flush. Dey all pass out 'cept Tilton and Moulton. Tilton he draw one card, two par, nines and sixes, an' don't better 'em. Moulton he draw two cards to free aces and took in par jacks. Beecher he drew one card.—Tilton he feel kinder weak on his han', an' bet white chip. Moulton he know Beecher on de bluff, so he jes follers wid a white chip. Beecher he don't look at his han' 'tall, but jes go rite back to de limit. Tilton he feel kinder weak den. He feel he can beat Beecher, but he tink Moulton can beat Beecher too, but he 'fraid Moulton get skeered and pass out. Finally Tilton call, kinder hesitatin' like, and den Moulton he jis bounce Beecher. Dat kinder startle Beecher, an' he look at his han'. He draw a club to fo' hearts an' got nuffin but bobtail fish. Mass' Beecher can't play bluff wid dem fellers. Dey eat him up blood raw."

AN ECONOMICAL SUGGESTION.

There is generally a good deal of the apocraphal in anecdotes of public men, and especially in those relating to soldiers, but the following is good enough to be true, whether it is truth or fiction:

"At Fair Oaks, while standing in a very tempest of death, with his sword uplifted in command, Gen. O. O. Howard had his right arm carried away.—That night after Howard had suffered amputation, and was lying spent and racked with pain in a box car, which was to take him to Washington, Gen. Kearney drew near, and, looking into a car said: "Howard, old boy, I am sorry for you—sorry with all my heart; but, Howard, old boy, I have just thought of something. When you get to Washington buy a pair of gloves; send me the right and keep the left for yourself, and I will divide the cost with you, and hereafter we will get along more economically.' And turning away Kearney muttered and said: "That is better for him than praying, and then Howard can beat me praying anyway.'"

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We, the delegated representatives of the Republican party of Illinois, declare the following to be substantially our political belief:

1. That emancipation and enfranchisement having been secured by the Thirteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by appropriate legislation for their enforcement; and equality of civil rights having been guarantied by the Fourteenth Amendment, such guaranty should be enforced by appropriate statutes, so that the broad ægis of Federal power may be over black and white citizens alike.

2. That, as one of the consequences of the late civil war, about $382,000,000 of non-interest bearing Treasury notes were issued to, and are now held by, the people as a safe and convenient currency, it would be unwise and inexpedient, in the present financial condition of the people, to attempt the immediate cancellation of any portion of such Treasury notes.

3. That the laws for the establishment of national banks having secured to the States and Territories the best system of bank circulation ever before afforded the people, it should be no longer confined to a privileged class, but should be free to all alike, under general and equal laws, the aggregate volume of currency to be regulated by the untrammeled laws of trade.

4. That we re-affirm the declaration of the National Republican Convention of 1872, in favor of a return to specie payment at the earliest practicable day.

5. That we commend the measures which have passed the popular branch of Congress, looking to the cheapening and perfection of Inter-State railway transportation, and the improvement of navigation at the mouth of the Mississippi river.

6. That we are in favor of an amendment of the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of the President and Vice President by the direct vote of the people, without the intervention of the Electoral College.

7. That the Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Federal Governments; and it will aim to secure the rights and privileges of the citizen without regard to nativity or creed; and it is opposed to interference by law with the habits, tastes or customs of individuals, except to suppress licentiousness or to preserve the peace and safety of the citizens of the State.

8. That while we accord to the railway companies of this State the fullest measure of property rights, we also demand for the people reasonable charges and rigid impartiality in the transportation of passengers and freight—such guaranty to be secured by appropriate State and National legislation.

Relying upon the foregoing declaration of principles and policy, and upon the broad, clear record of the Republican party during its fifteen years of State and Federal administration, we appeal once more to that silent yet conclusive tribunal, the ballot-box, confident that the people will endorse overwhelmingly the action of this representative Convention.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says, "The trouble with the Democratic organization has been, and is now, a deficiency of principles." The Courier-Journal having been so long a Democratic "organ" ought to know. We think ourself the "trouble" is chronic.

THE Boston Post, a paper which seldom sees anything good in the President, speaks in high terms of the speech which he recently made at the Vineyard Camp-meeting Ground.—Though it says thas his remarks were neither with deep thought nor brilliant with suggestive rhetoric, they were yet "a pleasant recognition of the careful attention which he received at every point of his summer's jaunt." The people have uniformly manifested their patriotic sentiments by honoring the representative of the highest office in the government without a thought of jealousy or political distinction, and in this they have set an example to certain politicians and presses which they might well follow.

THE twelve men murdered while on their way from Coushatta, Louisiana, to Shreveport, were six whites and six colored The white men were all of Northern birth, and had been soldiers in the army of the Union They were F. S Edgarton, Sheriff, H T Twitchell, Tax Collector, Clark Holland, Register, Gilbert Cone, deputy sheriff, W F Howell, and R. A Dewees, tax collector of DeSoto Parish Their offense was a refusal to resign their offices to the demand of an armed mob They were overpowered, made prisoners, and locked up in jail. A "guard of honor" was to escort them to Shreveport They were taken by an out-of-the-way route through Bassier Parish, and there set upon and all murdered. It is a consolation to hear that this affair is "generally regretted" in Texas.

WE are to have yet another political party in Illinois. One would hardly imagine that the Democratic host was large enough to be divided into three parts in this State, but it seems that it is. We already have two wings, viz.: 1. The "Texas Steers," under the leadership of Smith, Gore & Co., with the Industrial Age as its chief organ. 2. The "Skinflints," managed by McCormick, Palmer and Hesing, with the Chicago Times and Tribune as organs and 3 We are to have, it seems, a sort of Modoc crowd under the leadership of the old Democratic war-horse, Richardson, supported by Singleton and Ledlie, who will make those sterling old Democratic principles, nigger hating and repudiation, the chief cornerstone of the faith. The latter wing is the strongest of the three, but none of them will amount to much at the polls. They are richer in words than votes, and if bluster counted for ballots each wing would carry the State by 100,000 majority —Inter-Ocean.

FORD COUNTY'S "FIRST GUN."

Ford county held a special election on Wednesday to fill the place of county treasurer lately vacated by the salary-grabbing anti-monopolist, Kilgore. The occasion was also embraced to elect a county surveyor, that office for some time having been vacant. The result is told in a special dispatch to the Pantagraph, published under the Ford county head. Mr. Shaw, the Republican nominee for treasurer, is elected by the handsome majority of one hundred and forty-seven, with two towns not reported, which will not materially change the result. Mr. Price, the nominee of both parties, and who was adopted by the Republican convention on the ground that he was a good Republican, is elected of course, by a slightly larger majority

Considering that little Ford went largely "Anti-Monopoly" last year, electing all the officers who were running on that ticket, by about two votes to one for their Republican opponents, the present result is particularly gratifying, as giving an earnest of her probable course in November next. We hope to chronicle her as all right when the November returns come in.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

AN inquisitive editor having asked the question, "What is bull-headed luck?" the Titusville Herald answers: "In the oil region a man who eked out an existence on stony hills, ate hoe cake and slap jacks, run on the river, went bare-footed nine months in a year, took his girl riding behind oxen, and then sold out to some wise (?) speculators for $2,000,000 cash, comes near enough to satisfy the ordinary mind"

THE ABDUCTION OF CHAS. BREWSTER ROSS.

A Circular Letter to Sheriff Jennings—$20,000 Reward.

Sheriff Jennings of this city has received a circular from Allen Pinkerton, dated Philadelphia, August 27th, pertaining to the great Ross abduction.—Accompanying it was a number of circulars with a lithograph of Charlie Ross at the head. They were sent for the purpose of being posted in hotels, depots and other public places. Twenty thousand dollars reward is offered for his recovery and the conviction of his abductors. He was stolen from his parents in Germantown, Pa., on July 1st by two unknown men. The portrait is stated to resemble the child but not to be a correct likeness He is about four years of age From a very complete description of the child which follows we infer that he must be very beautiful. The description closes with these sentences, the last of which is a very remarkable one· "He talks plainly but is retiring, and has a habit of putting his arm up to his eyes when approached by strangers. His skin may now be stained, and hair dyed,—or he may be dressed as a girl, with hair parted in the centre." A detailed description of of each kidnapper follows given separately under the heads of No. 1, & No. 2. We learn from it that both were very respectably dressed gentlemen, as one sported a gold watch and the other wore a pair of gold bowed spectacles.

Any person who may know of any child whom he has reason to believe is the one abducted is requested to communicate with his chief of police or Sheriff. Otherwise communications can be sent to the officers of Pinkerton's detective agencies in Philadelphia, New York or Chicago.

The circular letter closes with a request from Detective Pinkerton to advise him what, if any, bands of gipsies are in the vicinity of the city and when they came.

A band is encamped somewhere near town, as two very swarthy women have been seen on the streets several times.

THE OUTFIT.

Our voice has been to stay at home But, in spite of this pearl of good advice affectionately put forth, we fear that some men, with nothing to lose but borrowed money, will set out for the Black Hills Therefore, the only opportunity left us for the manifestation of love is in wisely directing an ample outfit for the journey. Charity should save its pence against their possible return, or to aid the desire of some eccentric wife to bring home such fragments of her gold-hunting husband as the Sioux palate may reject from its stew-pan.

The first essential for reaching the Rocky Mountain Ophir is a friend with money to lend on "long time." The first essential for returning is to buy a return ticket before starting, as there will positively be no tickets sold to miners at the other end of the line. It is not necessary to secure a cemetery lot before leaving, as Nature has been very generous in the size of the "Potter's Field" in that Sioux bourne whence few miners will return Before kissing your widow by brevet and babes de facto a last good-by, eat a meal of four days' duration. After that the Sioux will provide for you very liberally, even slice your meat, and pluck the hairs from your skillet. Take the best fire arms you can borrow and all the ammunition you can beg. It will be a consolation if you can leave your home friends the legacy of knowing that, not far from where you sat down to stay, a "red-devil" was wounded. Take with you a cheese-knife to carve your initials on those lumps of lucre too large to look up. This precaution will enable your children, twenty years later, when the coppery cannibals shall have listened to the echo of Greeley's voice and "gone west," to identify the gilded property you sacrificed life to achieve for them.

If, after all this equipment, the proprietors of that brass-washed country fail to think you worth keeping, you can fall back on your return ticket to come home and kiss the editorial eunuchs on whose advice you left home.—Chicago Post.

THE Carlinville Democrat, the organ of the Independent Reformers in Macoupin County, has taken Mr. Etter's name out of the ticket at its editorial head. It pronounces Etter a traitor to the party, and calls upon the State Central Committee to place another candidate in the field. Etter wants to be Superintendent of Public Instruction, and to secure that position is willing to run upon any number of tickets and endorse all the platforms that have been made this year.

THE piebald reformers over in the Bloomington district are going back on Stevenson, their candidate for congress, at a terrible rate. It has been developed beyond a doubt that he wears shirts which open behind. Any man who does that can't be a piebald reformer.—Piatt Co. Herald.

County Seat Contest in Cass County.

ST. PAUL, Sept 4.—The Committee appointed by the last Board of Agriculture, consisting of two Republicans and one Democrat, to investigate the transactions of the late State Auditor, Chas. McIlrath, on account of the school and swamp lands which were in his charge, as State land agent ex officio, made a unanimous report showing a startling state of things. The report and evidence, which is very voluminous, shows that McIlrath not only failed to keep his accounts properly, but that he constantly retained, from the money received by him for wood and grass cut off of the school lands, a large proportion of the same, and not paying over one-fourth of the amount received into the Treasury, that he also retained the whole of over $10,000 received by him for wood cut off the old sections of Lake Superior & Mississppi railroad lands. He also, it appears, kept for two years a quantity of the State bonds belonging to the school funds in the hands of banks in New York, drawing interest thereon himself, and accounting to the Treasury for no part of it.

The entire amount of McIlroth's speculations, so far as ascertained by the committee, is $89,559. The committee, in examining the question as to how the State could idemnify itself for these losses, made the startling discovery that McIlrath gave no bonds at all when last elected. The committee express profound surprise that Gov. Austin should have overlooked so important an official duty as seeing that the Auditor filed his bond when he took the oath of office, and concluded with a scathing denunciation of McIlroth's robbery of the most sacred fund belonging to the State.

WASHINGTON, D. C, September 4.—The War Department has been active to-day in preparing to co-operate with the Attorney General in carrying out the President's letter in regard to affairs in the South. The Attorney General last night designated several districts in which he thought military aid would immediately be required to support Marshals in arrests to be made. Military stations in Louisiana were all determined, as follows: New Orleans, Shreveport, Alexandria, Monroe, Harrisburg, St. Martinsville and Baton Rouge From these points access to all disturbed points is easy. Troops throughout the South will be ordered to prepare for movement in any direction, upon receipt of an order, and the same directions will be sent to all forces in the States along the border.

Cabinet officers do not hesitate to declare that the President will now vigorously use all the means in his power to enforce order in the South, and gentlemen who have had interviews with the President in regard to the situation represent him as expressing in private still more emphatic views than those contained in his letter, and as giving the most decided assurance that the whole power of the government shall be used to preserve order.

Orders for the closing of the offices of the Secret Service force in New York city, and transferring all its records to the custody of the Treasury Department, will be prepared to-morrow. The evidence collected by Solicitor Wilson in regard to the workings of this force, and that relating to safe burglary, will not be made public till the forthcoming trials have so far progressed as not to be damaged by the publicity of all facts discovered. There will soon be a complete re-organization of this branch of the service, with entirely new material, and it is expected of the Secretary to carry it on for about half the present cost.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 4.—Further news from the fire at Greenville, Miss., confirms the report of the destruction of nearly all the business houses in the place, in all seventy-three houses, valued at $250,000; insurance, about $150,000, on which the Planters' of Mississippi and Planters' of Memphis had a large amount. There will be considerable suffering, as nearly all the provisions in the town were destroyed. The house in which the fire originated had been previously set on fire four different times. A man named Thompson has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the incendiary work.

BEARDSTOWN, Ill., September 4.—The contest case which has been held here the last ten days, concerning the county seat, adjourned to-day, with four votes ahead in favor of Beardstown. Judge Lacey, of Havana, who has presided, gives his official decision within 30 days. The contest has been very exciting.

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 4.—Reports are received that one of the negroes arrested at Coushatta, charged with shooting Mr. Dickson on the night of the trouble there, was to-day taken from jail by a mob and shot.

The Evening Telegram, a Republican paper, in an editorial on the Coushatta troubles, emphatically denies the justice or truth of the intimation, in Gov. Kellogg's proclamation, that the murderers of the Coushatta prisoners were from Shreveport. It admits that a body of armed men left here Saturday, Aug. 29, but says they went to relieve friends reported to be in great danger, but they returned the same night, on learning from a courier that the danger was over.

The Times publishes a letter from Mr. Aftney, a leading merchant of Coushatta, stating that the result of the investigation by a citizens' committee composed of the best men in the Parish of the charges of inciting a riot, brought against the twenty-five negroes now under arrest, and fully confirm the first accounts brought here of the origin of the recent troubles there, viz: That Edgerton Mitchell, Dewes and other officials had concocted the scheme of the wholesale murder of white citizens, and had brought a large number of armed negroes to town and secreted them until the time should arrive to strike the blow, and that the plot was discovered and frustrated by the hasty rallying of the members of white clubs, and the leaders arrested.

The rest of the statement is a repetition of those before made in regard to threatened lynching of the prisoners by the mob; their attempted removal to Shreveport, en route North; their capture and murder by a band of armed men.

MONTPELIER, VT, Sept. 4—Returns from Judge Poland's district, five towns excepted, give Poland 5,575; Dennison; 6,875, Davenporte, 5,786, and scattering, 924. Two years ago the same towns gave Poland 10,684, Steele, 2,916; Davenporte, 2,680: and scattering, 557. Peck is elected Governor by from 21,000 to 23,000 majority.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Sept. 4—Full returns of the Second District of Vermont show Poland's vote, 5,749, Dennison, 7,099, Davenport, 2,022; scattering, 931.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Sept. 4—At the conclusion of the preliminary examination of Clark and Lewis, charged with the fiendish murder of August Gardner, by tying him to a railway track, the prisoners were held without bail. They were sent from Henryville to Charlestown, under a strong guard last night. It is reported that the counsel for the defendants will apply for a writ of habeas corpus. Should such an attempt be made, it is thought the vigilance committee will hang them. The Sheriff is determined to protect the prisoners at all hazards.

APACHES.

Gen. Crook's Right Management of them.

[From the Denver Tribune.]

The more we hear of Gen. Crook's operations in Arizona in connection with the Apache Indians, the more satisfied we do feel that he has struck the right path—an idea and "policy" that can be followed with profit by all those having any authority over the different Indian tribes.

Gen Crook not only understands the Indian character thoroughly, but is now showing what can be accomplished.—The Apaches are known to be a prime specimen of the intractable Indian.—The General, having hunted them down and shown them that they could no longer continue to murder and rob settlers with impunity, is now giving a good lesson in their management.

On the Verde reservation there are about 1,650 Apaches, and they have built houses and villages after the mannea of white people, without costing the government anything beyond the appropriation for food. They have also fifty-seven acres of grain planted, besides numerous vegetables and other products, sufficient for their subsistence next year.

The General has adopted a similar policy with the San Carlos Indians, who made an attempt at rebellion in February last. He confined them to the reservation and then gave them to understand that they must adopt the ways of civilization and earn their food before they consume it.

THE Danville Times also charges Mr. Pickrell with being a class candidate, for the reason that none except farmers were invited to participate in the convention that nominated him. We are aware that this is a just ground of complaint.—[Charleston Courier.

Enterprise.—The Magnet and Tribune has been very wordy of late in setting forth its enterprise and activity in the matter of gleaning local news and giving it to the public far in advance of the REPUBLICAN. As an illustration of this enterprise we give the following facts in regard to the doings of the lively "corpse" which the Consolidation has kept on the fair ground to advise the public as to what was being done there. Their issue of this morning gave the premiums awarded yesterday just as far as they were reported in the REPUBLICAN of last evening, and no further, while the latter sheet failed to publish all that was furnished by its reporter for want of room. In addition to this several premiums were awarded during the afternoon of Friday, which are not reported in this morning's issue of the Consolidation. And we also looked in vain through the columns of that sheet for a report of the races of Friday afternoon. In addition to the above examples of enterprise, we have another equally striking one in the report of the robberies which were committed and attempted on Wednesday night and Thursday, both of which were fully reported in the REPUBLICAN of Friday, but did not appear in the columns of the Consolidation until this morning, and even then the report bore striking indications of having been made up from the REPUBLICAN's statement of those occurrences.

Don't wear out your patience and your shoes too, by running all over town to fit your children out for school, but go straight to the City Book Store of Litsinberger & Sutton, where you will find everything you want, and at the lowest prices.

The following from the Charleston Plaindealer would seem to indicate that the dwellers in that region have been made happy by abundant rains:

> Recent rains have silenced all complaints of farmers, grangers, and everybody else. The corn crop will certainly be one-third larger than ever before, and will sell at a fair price, while the fall pastures promise better than for many years.

Just in Time.—The clouds held back their contents until the fair was over, and last night poured them out in copious showers, having a decidedly cooling effect upon the atmosphere, which was decidedly refreshing.

A fair crowd gathered at the fair ground yesterday afternoon, though not as large as the day before. Lost and Won—The audience at the opera house last night was the largest of the week, notwithstanding the weather, and the play was highly enjoyed by all present. Miss Denin, as usual, charmed every one by the natural manner of her acting, and threw into the character all the fire and force of which she is master. Mr. Phillips, as Mugge, was simply immense; while Mr. Clifford, as James Gordon, did some really splendid acting.

One of the most interesting features of the evening, however, was the debut of Mrs. M. L. Cain, who had voluneeered her services for the occasion of Miss Denin's benefit. Her appearance was greeted with hearty applause, and though the character she assumed—that of Blanche Sterling, the scheming disturber of domestic happiness—was not such as would be calculated to give her the sympathy of the audience, she nevertheless managed the situation with great skill, and won her full share of praise. We hope to hear Mrs. Cain again, in some character better calculated to bring out the rare histrionic ability which she certainly possesses.

The afterpiece was funny, and, as usual, "brought down the house."

To-night, the last of Mis Denin's engagement, will be presented that splendid old play, "Lucretia Borgia." The house ought to be well filled.

HOME FROM JOLIET.

Sheriff Jennings returned, last Thursday evening, from the State Penitentiary, whither he started with five convicts, on Wednesday evening last. The prisoners were all manacled, and rode quietly in the passenger coach together. At Lincoln they partook of a hearty breakfast—their last repast outside of the penitentiary. The doomed men were quite jolly until they approached within a few miles of Joliet, when they became much dejected. They were all ushered in, and took a preliminary bath, after which they donned a portion of the prison costume. Next they interviewed the barber shop and had their "hair cut." Thursday morning they commenced their long prison labor. The tasks assigned them are not yet known, as the Sheriff left before they were given.

Honest John drives a mule cart, and is engaged in the responsible duty of picking up garbage in the yard. He was first assigned a mechanical vocation, but not being successful his resignation was accepted. His time will be out in December.—Mr. Jennings did not see Glen Church, but heard that he was well, and hopeful of serving out his sentence—99 years?

1235 men and 19 women are now confined in our State Penitentiary. Only four of the number were in the hospital, which speaks well for the sanitary condition of the place.

Christian Church.—To-morrow morning Rev. W. H. Crow, of Barry, Ill., will occupy the pulpit, and at 7:30 p. m., Rev. J. Z. Tyler, of Richmond, Virginia Seats free. Strangers welcome.

Quarterly Meeting Services will be held at Stapp's Chapel to-morrow.—Rev. Mr. Prentiss, Presiding Elder, will preach in the morning. Sacrament and love feast service at 3 o'clock p. m., and a children's meeting in the evening. All are invited.

Everybody ought to tell the truth, and we simply do this when we say we have the largest stock of books and stationery in the city. We ask the people to compare before rendering judgment.

LITSINBERGER & SUTTON.

LAWRENCE BARRETT.

Our citizens, who remember with pleasure the visit of Lawrence Barrett to this city, last winter, will be happy to hear of his return. He is billed here for next Saturday evening when he will appear in Bulwer's tragedy of Richelieu. The following comment on the legitimate drama in the west is from the New York Tribune:

> "The most cheering signs of a return to the legitimate reaches us from the West, where the culture and fashion of that section crowd to suffocation the theatres where the great artist, Lawrence Barrett appears, confining himself, as he does, to the presentations of the standard works only. Those in the East who are constantly crying out about the degeneracy of the drama, would do well to imitate, by their presence and support, the reflective and cultivated minds of the South and West."

Fresh Oysters, direct from Baltimore, at Imboden's daily.

New Brick Building.—An addition to Ullrich's packing house, 22x44 feet in dimensions is soon to be erected. 12 teams and a large force of men are engaged in excavating the cellar and hauling away dirt. The latter is being used in filling up the vacant lot north of Mrs. Wilkinson's, on Macon street. Mr. Ullrich intends building a fine residence on the site.

The pork house will be 44 feet square when completed. Mr. Bramble is superintending the work at present. The brick laying will be done by Messrs Moffet and Hughes; the carpenter work, by Mills & Harry.

When the fair commenced the consolidation advertised that they would have a corpse on the ground and give its readers a full report of the proceedings. The corpse may have been there; in fact, our reporter says he actually saw it, but the corpse appropriated our report and forgot to state that it was copied from the REPUBLICAN.

Coffeen's Book Store—Largest and Cheapest. Post Office Block. 4dw1

Ask your dealer for "RUTH'S SQUARE BRAND OYSTERS," and satisfy yourself that a can FULL OF GOOD oysters, is CHEAPER than a can of water with a few poor sickly oysters floating in it.

The water in Baltimore is of excellent quality, but rather expensive when brought here by Express in oyster cans. If you are well supplied with WATER, and want OYSTERS, ask for "RUTH'S SQUARE BRAND."

When consumers have learned that the so called cheap oysters are in reality the most expensive, they will ask for "RUTH'S SQUARE BRAND," and get cans FILLED with fine large oysters.

The great scandal caused by parties palming off cans of water, for oysters, will open the eyes of the public to the fact that "RUTH'S SQUARE BRAND" oysters always give perfect satisfaction.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

The Chevalier, Marcus H. Mayer, of San Francisco, agent of Lawrence Barrett's dramatic company, called at the REPUBLICAN office yesterday. He is a magnificent beau, and numbers his conquests by hundreds.

We learn that Mr. Jesse Leforgee is to assist Mr. Coffeen at his new book store, west of the post office, for a time. The many friends of Mr. L. who have done business with him in the same line in other stores will be sure to give him a call here.

Al. Bounds, Esq., of Bement, honored the REPUBLICAN office with a call yesterday. He is the famous "Uncle Joe" of that berg. From here he went to Saint Louis on a Sunday school excursion. Our devil, who claims to be the poet laureate of the office, wrote the following lines in commemoration of the visit:

There was a man from Bement,
To visit St. Louis he went;
His name you would know,
It was Uncle Joe!
This jolly old coon from Bement.

Everybody buys books at Litsinberger & Sutton's, and this is why they are constantly getting new goods.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

There will be a temperance meeting in the park on Sabbath evening, (weather permitting) at 6 o'clock. Addresses may be expected from Elders Haynes and J. Z. Tyler. The usual exercises, also.

The Union Temperance Prayer Meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening—meeting to continue one hour. Let all be present and prompt.

Daily prayer meeting in Room No. 1, 1st M. E. Church, at 4 o'clock.

By order of COMMITTEE.

The exceedingly neat and well filled book and stationery store of Mr. M. D. Coffeen, next door west of the post office, is an object of admiration to all who visit it. The facilities for showing and handling goods are most complete, and what is better than all, the goods are there to show and sell. Persons having business in his line will find this the right place to do business.

The Question Answered—"How Linn & Scruggs employ so many salesmen and sell goods cheap." They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the Case and Package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers. jun 2 d&wly

How to Get Strength.—Iron frames and strong nervous systems are not the lot of all. But the feeble need not despair. By adopting the right means they may live as long and enjoy life as much as their more robust neighbors. Physical invigoration is, however, necessary to this end; and while the spirituous tonics and nervines usually administered, eventually depress both body and mind, DR. J. Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
